

Vacancy Notice

SGG program local consultants

PHNOM SREY ORGANIZATION FOR DEVELOPMENT (PSOD) (Previously PSAD) is local non-profit, political party and non-racism organization was established in November 1998 and registered with the Ministry of Interior in October 2000 as association and localized as organization in 12 Nov 2010. Vision: a developed Cambodian society whose people have peace, equity, solidarity and self-reliance. Mission: jointly collaborate with the Royal Government of Cambodia in facilitating development work that leads to alleviation of people's poverty. Goal: Work with target audience and groups in communities as well as mobilize support and work in partnership with relevant stakeholders to ensure that people have access to social services for improvement their quality of life. Core values: are wisdom, Integrity and Transparency, Responsiveness and Respect.

PSOD is seeking one qualified candidate with Cambodia nationality to fill the one position of Local Consultant for 18 months duration under found and technical supported from The Asian Foundation (TAF) to provide technical support of Strengthening Local Good Governance through citizen participation and good practice award Program (SGG) in Kampong Cham province.

Major Role and Responsibilities:

- Lead and coordinate program staff to develop SGG work plan
- Assist and provide technical support to program manager and program officer to implement SGG program
- Organize and draft other necessary program document, include other document for target audience and relevance stakeholders
- Be a core trainer or facilitator in other workshop meeting and training that related SGG program
- Coordinate other model activities for program manager and program officer
- Coordinate other SGG program committees to implement SGG program
- Record all good case study on the best practice of local good governance, and;
- Support consultations and other technical to success of SGG program implementation.

Job Equipments:

- Cambodia nationality
- University degree of law, social scientist or scientific or relevance university degree
- Experience and knowledge in good governance, social accountabilities and advocacy
- Experience in facilitate and lead workshop, meeting and training
- Experience in project management/similarly project or good consultation service providing
- Able to work at remote target area
- Good English knowledge and report writing skills and computer proficiency.

A local consultant will be recruit would not implement over 32 working days for SGG program above.

Interested and qualified candidates are requested to apply with an updated CV and cover letter (In English) with included photo 4 x 6. Applications must reach the following address no later than 5:00 pm on Dec 15, 2010 as following address # 126, Preah Monivong Chroy Chma village, Beoung Kok Commune, Kampong Cham District, Kampong Cham Province, Attention to: Ms. Hany Fiya PSOD executive director, Tel: 042 941-670 or 012 440-808 or E-mail:psad2009@gmail.com or fiyapsad@gmail.com. Women are encouraged to apply.